

Zonta Club of Geneva 27th Annual Scholarships Announced

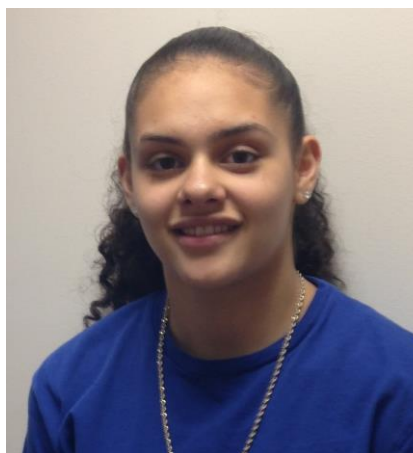

Geneva, NY —Two area high school graduates will be honored at the Zonta Scholarship dinner at the Seneca Yacht Club in Geneva on June 17. Each graduate will receive a $500 scholarship. Kelly DeMay, Scholarship Chair, announced the following award winners:

DANIELLE ARNOLD is a 2015 graduate of Midlakes High School. She is the daughter of Jeffery and Jane Arnold. Danielle plans to pursue her education at West Virginia University, where she plans to major in animal science.

Danielle's career goal is to become a large animal veterinarian. Through many Advanced Placement courses taken, Danielle has experienced the rigor and education necessary to best prepare her for college. Danielle has spent considerable time in the field, working in different experiences which have helped to confirm her passion for working with animals and pursuing her degree.

Danielle played soccer and lacrosse for all four years at Midlakes High School. She is a member of French Club, French Honor Society, and National Honor Society, in addition to having ample shadowing, volunteer and field experience.

CELINA CARISSIMI is the daughter of Rebecca Bradley of Geneva. She is a 2015 graduate of Geneva High School. Celina will be attending Monroe Community College in the fall, where her major will be criminal justice.

Celina is actively involved in several clubs and activities. Her areas of service include Red Cross, PAWS night, can food drives through the Boy's and Girl's Club of Geneva, and volunteering at community events. Celina also played soccer at GHS.

Celina has taken AP Language as well as several Gemini courses offered at GHS. She is excited to further pursue her education to advance her career goal of going into law enforcement.
