

Zonta Club of Geneva 28th Annual Scholarships Announced

The Zonta Club of Geneva is proud to announce the 2016 Zonta Scholarship recipients: Emily Vanderhoof of Clifton Springs and Kathryn (Katie) Taylor of Geneva. These area high school graduates were honored at the Zonta Scholarship dinner at the Seneca Yacht Club in Geneva on June 15. Each graduate will receive a $500 scholarship. The Scholarship Committee was composed of Teresa Gable, Sue Gray, and Sandy Ansley.

EMILY VANDERHOOF is a senior at Midlakes High School. She will be attending Nazareth College in the fall to study Physical Therapy.

Emily stated that “through volunteer work, I have also realized how much I enjoy helping people. Physical Therapy is just another way that I will be able to help people recover from their injuries.”

Emily is described as driven, hard-working and a leader among her peers. Emily is President of her senior class, a student tutor, a member of Interact Club, National Honor Society and Midlakes Athletic Leadership Organization.

KATIE TAYLOR is a senior at Geneva High School. She will be attending Hobart and William Smith Colleges in the fall to study Environmental and Political Sciences and eventually would like to become an Environmental Attorney.

She has a strong commitment for protecting the environment and animal rights. She stated that “community service has transformed me into a more compassionate and open minded human being with a great desire and willingness to give back and help others”.

Katie is described as a person with a very caring and compassionate spirit. She has volunteered for the Geneva Heroes, Big Brothers/Big Sisters program, House of Concern and the Leadership Institute at Hobart/ William Smith Colleges. She is an active member of the Interact Club, National Honor Society and Student Council.
