

Zonta Club of Geneva 29th Annual Scholarships Announced

The Zonta Club of Geneva is proud to announce the 2017 Zonta Scholarship recipients: Naja Jackson and Karissa Lichter. These area high school graduates will be honored at the Zonta Scholarship dinner at the Seneca Yacht Club in Geneva on June 7. Each graduate will receive a $500 scholarship. The Scholarship Committee was composed of Sue Gray, Jean Hinzmann and Kelly DeMay.

Naja Jackson is the daughter of Theresa Johnson of Geneva. She is a 2017 graduate of Geneva High School. Naja will be attending SUNY Brockport in the fall, where her major will be biology.

Naja is actively involved in several clubs, sports and activities. Her areas of service include mentoring at her church, the Boy's and Girl's Club of Geneva, and volunteering and coaching at community sports camps for children. Naja also ran track and was a cheerleader at GHS.

Naja has taken many Advanced Placement and Gemini classes offered at GHS. She is excited to further pursue her education to advance her career goal of being a doctor.

Karissa Lichter is a 2017 graduate of Waterloo High School. She is the daughter of Jeanette and Robert Lichter and plans to pursue her education at Canisius, where she plans to major in psychology.

Karissa's career goal is to become a psychiatrist. Through many Advanced Placement and Gemini courses taken, Karissa has experienced the rigor and education necessary to best prepare her for college. Karissa has spent considerable time in the field, working and volunteering in different areas which have helped to confirm her passion for working with people and pursuing her degree.

Karissa is actively involved in dance, leadership institutes, student government, and band. She is a member of National Honor Society, Interact Club, and works in her church's youth group.
