

Zonta Club of Geneva Announces 2010 Scholarships

Two area high school seniors were honored on May 13, 2010 at the Zonta Scholarship Fund dinner at the Geneva Country Club. Zonta Club members, scholarship recipients, parents, teacher and guidance personnel attended the celebration. Each senior received $500, an award certificate and a copy of Generation We: How the Millennial Youth are Taking over America and Changing Our World Forever, by Eric Greenburg and Karl Weber.”

Isabelle Doran Jensen

JULIET GARCIA

Juliet, daughter of Patricia Lieberg of Sharon Street, Geneva, is a member of the class of 2010, Geneva High School. She will be attending Duquesne University in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania in the fall to study nursing with plans for further studies to become a nurse practitioner. She was a student in the New Visions Medical Career Program at Geneva General Hospital.

Juliet’s community service includes Experiment in International Living, where she traveled to Belize to provide services to the village of Crooked Tree, Big Brother and Big Sisters, Festival of Nations, Relay for Life and Beverly Animal Shelter. While at Geneva High School she participated in Volleyball, Semi High Tech U, National Honor Society, UN TEAM and Envirothon.

STEPHANIE VONGPHOUTHONE

Stephanie, daughter of Khamtheng and Pane Vongphouthone of VanCleaf Street, Seneca Falls, is a member of the class of 2010, Mynderse Academy. She will be attending Albany College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences to become a Doctor of Pharmacy.

While in high school she has participated in Student Council, National Honor Society, Interact Club, Marching Band, and Seneca Falls Pageant of the Bands and is a NYS Scholar Athlete in Lacrosse. Community service includes Seneca Cayuga ARC, Junior Rotary and Kiwanis and Relay for Life.