

Zonta Club of Geneva Announces 2011 Scholarships

Two-area high school seniors were honored at the Zonta Scholarship dinner on May 11, 2011. Zonta Club members, scholarship recipients, parents and family attended the celebration. Each senior received $750, an award certificate, and a book specific to their college interests presented by Isabelle Doran Jensen, Scholarship Chair and Mary Brainard, Club President.

For 23 years the scholarship has recognized and assisted young women from area high schools, who share Zonta's goals for improving the status of women, providing community service and seeking world peace. Funds for the award come from the Annual Holiday Cookie and various fund raising efforts of the club.
