

ZONTA MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIPS

Our Geneva Zonta Club is proud to announce the winners of the Memorial Fund Scholarship Awards and the Young Woman in Public Affairs Award for 2007. This is the twentieth year the awards have been given. The Scholarship Committee selected the following four outstanding young women:

$1,000 Scholarship – KAITLIN OSTRANDER, Midlakes High School. Kaitlin is the daughter of Roy and Shelly Ostrander of Clifton Springs. She has been accepted to Northeastern University, Bouve College of Health Sciences in Boston to become a doctor specializing in pediatric oncology. She participated in the New Vision Medical Careers Program at Geneva General Hospital. Kaitlin took advanced placement and Gemini classes, participated in lacrosse, soccer, and yearbook. As a member of the National Honor Society she volunteered for many activities including food for needy families and the daffodil cancer sale. She volunteered for Relay for Life and was a big sister for the Big Brother-Big Sister Program.

$900 Scholarship – ANGELA MCKINNEY, Geneva High School. She is the daughter of Scott and Judith McKinney of Geneva. She will attend Smith College in Massachusetts to major in political science and minor in economics. She plans to attend law school. Angela has been involved in international issues through a model United Nations team and was an exchange student in Ecuador. She wants to join the Peace Corps after college. She took advanced placement classes and college classes at HWS. She was a member of the varsity tennis team and National Honor Society. Angela participated in American Cancer Society walks, Leader Spark (a program building women leaders for the next generation) and volunteered for the White House Project.

$700 Scholarship – KARI ANN JOHNSON, DeSales High School. She is the daughter of Fred and Laurie Johnson of Seneca Castle. She will be attending St. John Fisher College. Kari was involved in Student Council, National Honor Society, Key Club, International Club, SADD, Student Apostle Leadership Team, basketball, and soccer. She has over 70 hours of community service. Kari works part-time at Wegman's in Geneva.

$400 Young Woman in Public Affairs Award – SHANNON McLAUGHLIN, Romulus High School. She is the daughter of Brian and Kelly McLaughlin of Geneva. Shannon was a member of the volleyball, softball, cheerleading and track teams, Ski Club, National Honor Society, yearbook and Fine Arts Club. She was a class officer. Her contribution to the community was as a volunteer teaching first grade religious education, visiting nursing homes, Community Lunch Program, Relay for Life, Teddie Dance for Love, and Special Olympics. Shannon will be attending St. John Fisher College with a dual major in elementary education and special education with a minor in educational technologies.