

Zonta Club of Geneva Announces 2008 Scholarships

Two area high school seniors were honored on May 28, 2008 at the Zonta Memorial Scholarship Fund dinner at the Geneva Country Club. Zonta Club members and family members of the scholarship winners joined in the awards celebration. Each senior received $800.

KAYLEIGH HOGAN

Daughter of Greg and Sharon Hogan of Castle Street, Geneva. A senior at Geneva High School. She will be attending the University of Rochester in the fall to study engineering towards an advanced degree and professional designations. Throughout high school, she has been involved with the school's community service clubs, Key Club, Interact Club and school government. She volunteered at the Boys and Girls Club by helping young girls in a Lacrosse program. In addition, she has volunteered at Special Olympics, the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life, North Street Elementary School reading program, and Hobart and William Smith Colleges Celebrate Service. She has also participated in soccer.

ALEXANDRA GABLE

Daughter of Stephan Gabel and Teresa Gable of Seneca Falls. A senior at Waterloo High School. She will be attending Pratt Institute in Utica for two years and two additional years in New York City, to study fine arts, illustration and design. Throughout high school, she has been involved with community walks - Relay for Life and March of Dimes. She has also participated in Community Theater, Rotary Interact Club, United Way's S.U.R.G.E. after school program, The Salvation Army's Camp Columbus, and Caring Clowns at Geneva General Hospital. While in Girl Scouts, she earned one of the highest honors, the Silver Award. She has traveled with St. Peter's Choir to England and Scotland and two mission trips to help the homeless in Boston and Philadelphia.
